President's Report

Greetings fellow Zontians

This is my first President's letter and the first Bulletin for the year. Many thanks to Jill Langford for agreeing to edit it.

It was wonderful to welcome a new member, Bev Hocking, to our ranks at the handover dinner. We are a great group of women and we welcome you Bev. We hope you find membership in Zonta both fulfilling and fun.

As many of you would know we are holding a New Members afternoon at Beryl's on Saturday June 25th from 2:30 to 4:30 to welcome our new members into our club. We would like to see as many of you as possible turn up to enjoy an afternoon of Fellowship. Members are our most important asset so we should nurture each other. Those members attending please bring a plate to share to help Beryl who has generously offered her home as the venue.

Di Strutton, Lynda A'Bear, Margaret Bunfield and I attended the Combined Committee for Legislative Awareness and Advocacy Forum on 'What Young Women Want' June 4th. Our YWPA recipient Amanda Saleh spoke as one of four of the panel and spoke very well. It was a great forum and an interesting afternoon. It was a necessity to educate our daughters and especially our sons to show the respect that women are due and to become aware of all of the barriers that are put in the way of women and to help to break them down.

We have had our first Board meeting with the new board and the OMC committee are busy putting together a good programme for the year. It will be ready soon and will be available on the web.

Our June meeting will feature a cameo by Doone Winnall that will be very interesting to hear and a Q and A session for members with the board. Come to the meeting with questions and issues that you want to raise and enjoy an evening of fellowship and discussion. It should be a lively evening and I am looking forward to hearing what all of you consider important. Please don't feel reticent about raising any issues. If we can't answer questions that you put to us on the night we can take them away and get the answers for you.

I hope to see all of you at Belair Country Club on Wednesday night

Yours in Zonta
Sherry
